F. FACTS AND FIGURES ABOUT THE ROUTE

THE PACIFIC COAST HIGHWAY

4.1.

The Pacific Coast Highway is one of the most beautiful roads in the world. If you want to get the most out of travelling along it, don't rush. On your journey you'll have the chance to admire spectacular mountains, towering trees, perfect beaches and endless sky. There are also many interesting places where you can stop during the trip to go surfing, hiking and even whale watching. Even a week is not enough to see everything that the Pacific Coast Highway has to offer.

4.2.

From end-to-end, the highway is 1,675 miles long. It runs along the western coast of the USA. Drivers heading north eventually reach Olympia in Washington State, and for those going south the final destination is San Diego in California. The most heavily used part of the highway is a distance of 560 miles between San Francisco and San Diego.

4.3.

There is some obvious risk created by heavy traffic near cities. Another thing to be aware of is that outside of built-up areas the Pacific Coast Highway does not have barriers in many places where the road runs along the ocean coast and through mountain regions. Many accidents happen on these sections of the highway because of careless driving as well as heavy rain, falling rocks and mudslides.

4.4.

If you’re driving from south to north, do the trip in the spring so that when you reach the north, the weather is already warm there. And if you’re driving north to south, the opposite applies and you should do the trip in the autumn. In July and August, you have the best chance of almost perfect weather, but you also have the busiest hotels and high-season prices.

WHAT'S ON ARTS & ENTERTAINMENT LIFESTYLE FESTIVALS

It was a night to remember! When Rob Gratton and The Camels got on stage, the audience started cheering. The fans knew every song, word for word, and they sang together with the band. Their first song was Freedom, followed by their new creation Ahoy. But the crowd's favourite was Civilisation. The band and the fans sang it together over and over again. Rob Gratton's performance was electrifying. As the band were leaving the stage, a few fans approached them and gave each of them a toy camel. In exchange the fans got beautiful T-shirts signed by the musicians. Definitely the best concert of the 9th Mad River Music Festival!

Tekst D

Anna:	Are The Camels taking part in the Mad River Music Festival this year?
Rob:	Yes, and they're going to perform my new song. I only finished writing it last week.
Anna:	That's fantastic! Can you tell our readers something about songwriting? For example, what comes first: music or lyrics?
Rob:	Music always comes first. I just sit with my guitar, thinking about a place or a person, and suddenly I hear the melody in my head and I start playing it.
Anna:	And what about the lyrics?
Rob:	First, I decide what the main topic of the song is going to be. Then I sit at the piano, play the music to check what it sounds like, and try singing different versions of the lyrics. And if they seem all right, I just write them down.
Anna:	And then you present the new song to the band…
Rob:	Yes. And if they like it, we start practising it straight away.
Anna:	Thanks, Rob, we can't wait to see you at the festival.

Hi Robert,

Have you read my interview with Rob Gratton, the singer, guitarist and songwriter? I was surprised to learn that he plays the melody on 5.4. _____ _____ when he is trying to write the lyrics for his songs.

The Camels are going to perform his new song at the Mad River Music Festival next week. I attended the 9th festival last year and I absolutely loved it! I was there with a group of The Camels fans. After the concert, we met the members of the band and we gave them 5.5. _____ as a gift from us.

This year I'm going to the Mad River Music Festival again. Do you want to go with me? The atmosphere in the arena is something you will never forget. I'd like to attend all the concerts so I decided to buy the 5.6. _____ _____. This way I won't miss anything. I'll be able to listen to rock music from any band.

If you can't go, you can still watch the concerts live on the internet. But remember, if you want to get a link, you must register on the festival website by 5.7. _____ _____ at the latest.

Let me know what you think,

Anna

Zadanie 6. (0–5)

Przeczytaj tekst. Z podanych odpowiedzi wybierz właściwą, zgodną z treścią tekstu. Zakreśl jedną z liter: A, B, C albo D.

Amy watched six taxis go past her. […] She knew she had to be home on time so she decided to take the tube home. She was already so late and angry that the journey on a crowded train couldn't make it much worse.

Tonight, Ed's sister from America, Bella, and her husband, were coming to dinner. Amy would meet Bella for the first time. Ed respected Bella so much that he had written to her for permission to marry Amy. At the time Amy thought it was funny; but three years later, she found it rather irritating. Ed wrote to his sister regularly. Once, filled with anger, Amy had opened one of his letters before posting it. It was a childish report on how their life was: information about the floor tiles they were planning to get for the kitchen, comments about the new dresses that Amy had bought, detailed descriptions of picnics or parties they had gone to. Amy felt strange. It was the kind of letter that a mother might get from a small son who had gone off to summer camp, not something that a sister in faraway America should need or want from her adult brother.

Bella and her husband's visit to London was a short stop on their three-week tour of Europe which had just begun. They had arrived in the morning, but they did not want to be met at the airport. They preferred to rest after the long flight in a good hotel with a comfortable bedroom and bathroom. Fully refreshed, at 7 p.m., they were going to come and see Ed and Amy.

As a rule, on any Thursday, Amy came home from the office where she worked as a receptionist, took off her shoes, unpacked her shopping, got a meal ready, and then Ed arrived home. They normally had dinner and then enjoyed sitting by the fireplace watching TV, chatting about holiday plans for a journey together. But that was all before Bella's stressful visit had been announced. For three months now, Ed hadn't been able to relax. He couldn't even concentrate on his work and kept talking about little problems in their house. "Amy, can you fix that curtain rail, please?" A few times, Amy had tried to explain that Bella was not coming on a mission of inspection, but Ed had just got more worried and said that he wanted everything to be right. Everything was so right that Amy couldn't stand it any more.

MYSTERIOUS NOISE

One night, about a month ago, I woke up at 4 a.m. because I heard a noise in my wardrobe. 7.1. _____ It felt like a very long time. After it stopped, my wife and I searched the wardrobe, but we found nothing. We heard the same noise again the next night, and then every night after that. So, I looked up "strange noise in my house" on the Internet, and the top result was that the noise was made by a bat. This information came as a shock to me. 7.2. _____ One of them even came over and looked through the wardrobe, but with no success. Then, to feel safe, I decided to start locking the wardrobe door at night.

But the next time the noise woke me up, I got really angry and immediately opened the wardrobe door. And this time I could hear where it was coming from. 7.3. _____ I opened it and it turned out that inside there was an old keychain alarm which was ringing! Well, I already felt stupid, but then I couldn't even turn the thing off. 7.4. _____ But when I did that, it started making an even louder noise! Finally, I hit it with a hammer! The noise finally stopped disturbing us.

Na podstawie: www.reddit.com

A. She even suggested leaving some food on the floor so whatever was in the wardrobe would come out.
B. Right at the bottom of the wardrobe I found a shoebox which was vibrating.
C. It sounded like a small bird or a mouse and lasted for about 30 seconds.
D. I immediately texted a few friends to tell them about my situation.
E. My wife advised me to throw it into a pot of water.
