Girl: Tom, how about a game of table tennis? We could go to the sports centre.
Boy: But the weather's too good to stay inside, don't you think?
Girl: You may be right. So let's go and play volleyball on the beach then.
Boy: Oh, I'm not sure. There'll be a lot of people there. Why don't we try the new climbing wall in the park? I've never done that and I'd like to try.
Girl: All right, I'll show you how to do it. And we'll play table tennis tomorrow, OK?

Tekst 2.

Boy: Oh! Hi, Daisy. Great you're here. I need your help. I want to do all the housework before Mum gets home. I've already taken the dishes out of the dishwasher and I've even boiled the rice for dinner.
Girl: So what's the problem?
Boy: Well, just look at those dirty clothes.
Girl: Why don't you put them in the washing machine?
Boy: Because I don't know which program I should use.
Girl: Let me have a look. It's not that difficult. Use program number 3, the one for cottons.
Boy: Oh, thanks, Daisy. I'll do that.

Tekst 3.

Man: Oh, no!
Woman: What's the problem?
Man: This is not my suitcase!
Woman: How is that possible? Yes, look - it's got someone else's name on it. Jack O'Neil Didn't you notice?
Man: I was in a hurry. My plane was late, I grabbed a blue suitcase and thought it was mine. And it was the driver who put it on the back seat. I gave him your address and here I am.
Woman: Oh I see.
Man: Well, I have to call the lost luggage line. Where is my jacket? It's got my phone in it.
Woman: You left it in the kitchen.

Girl: Excuse me, I'm new here and I don't know where to start.
Man: Oh, don't worry. Maybe I'll just give you a tour of the whole gym and show you how to use the machines we have here. Then you should make a workout plan. I could give you a hand with that if you want.
Girl: That sounds great. Thanks.

Boy: I was eight when I realized that all my classmates could already ride two-wheel bikes, and I was the only one still riding a small bike with training wheels. I asked my brother to help me learn to ride a real big bike. We went for a ride and he held the back of the seat. At some point, he let go of the seat and I didn't even notice!

Wypowiedź 2.

Girl: When I was 11 and first tried to learn how to ride a bike I had an accident. I lost my balance and fell off. It was nothing serious, I didn't even have a scratch, but I was extremely scared about riding a bike again. As a result, it took me ten years to get back on a bike, but I finally succeeded.

Wypowiedź 3.

Boy: I remember that I didn't want to use a bike with training wheels. My bike had a long stick behind the seat. While I was riding, my brother ran behind me holding the stick so that I didn't fall off. When I felt sure I could ride by myself, I told him that I wanted to try on my own.

Wypowiedź 4.

Girl: As a small kid I often watched my older brother ride his bike. I wanted to do it too, but I didn't want to ask anyone for help. I thought they would laugh at me. So I tried on my own. Of course, I kept falling off the bike. I had many cuts, scratches and bruises all over my hands and legs! Luckily, it only took me two days to learn how to ride.

Tomorrow we're going to the cinema. The film starts at 11:30, so let's meet in front of the library at 10:15. Don't be late. I thought we would be able to take the tram, but there are no direct lines to the cinema from our stop. So the best option is to go by bus. I know some of you would prefer to see the latest part of "The City of Robots", but it wouldn't be the right choice for a school trip. We've booked tickets for a film called "Yellow River". Don't take any food or drinks to the cinema because after the film we are going to have lunch at a pizza restaurant. Then we are visiting an art gallery to see a new photography exhibition. I think we'll have a fun day out.
