Hi Sandra, I'm calling to tell you that I'll be late. My electric scooter has stopped working. Now I am waiting for the bus so that I can take my scooter home and then I'll come to you. I called my dad and he said he will take me to your place in his car. I hope my scooter is not too big to take on the bus and I won't have to walk back home with it. See you in about forty minutes if everything goes well.

Boy: Here's the map of the zoo. Where should we go first?
Girl: Let's go and see the elephants first and then the monkeys.
Boy: Look, the notice on the board says that the lions are having their feeding time now, so they will be outside and easy to see.
Girl: All right then, let's visit the elephants later and start with the lions. After that, we can see the monkeys.
Boy: Good idea!

Boy: Maggie, I didn't know you were here. What are you reading?
Girl: The book Mrs Stevens asked us to read for homework.
Boy: Oh, that one. I've left it at school. I just want to enjoy the weekend.
Girl: But the book's really good.
Boy: Can you concentrate in here? It's so noisy.
Girl: It's not a problem for me and I like the hot chocolate they serve here.
Boy: I'm here with Eric and Jessica. We've got a table over there in the corner. Why don't you join us?
Girl: Oh… OK. I can finish the book later.

Hi, this is Alice. Something is wrong with my parrot Polly. The vet suggested that I should bring her for a check-up, so I've made an appointment. But Polly hates going to the vet and always tries to fly away. She's really big and strong. I need someone to hold her with me at the clinic. Do you have any time on Monday afternoon? Call me back!

Boy: Have you bought all the ingredients we need?
Girl: Yes, I got the flour, eggs, cream and sugar. I also bought some chocolate chips and peanut butter, just in case we want to make the cake extra special.
Boy: Great, I'll bring the recipe which my mum gave me. I have the cake every year at my birthday party and it's delicious. And the baking time is only 15 minutes.
Girl: That sounds awesome!

Girl: I recently bought a pair of beautiful shorts from a girl who lives in another town. Unfortunately, they don't fit me. But I didn't send them back because of what the girl had put in the parcel with the shorts. It was a vintage hat. That was a nice surprise. I absolutely love it! It's black with green cucumbers all over it. Each cucumber has a little smiling face, which is just perfect.

Boy: I just love buying second-hand things. It's eco-friendly and inexpensive. I also sell my used stuff online. I recently sold all my childhood books for a really good price. I immediately used that money to buy a present for my mum: a beautiful scarf. It wasn't brand new, but my mum is also a fan of giving things a second life, so she loved it.

Girl: I normally don't buy second-hand stuff. Why? Well, I just like new things because they are usually in better condition. But last week I was on a second-hand website and saw a beautiful sweater. The description said that the seller's mother had made it herself by hand. I loved the fact that it was not produced in a factory so I bought it. It arrived yesterday. It is not perfect but it's really special for me.

Wypowiedź 4.
Boy: Prices are so high these days that I can't afford to buy new things. That's why I am a member of an online group of people who exchange things they don't need or like anymore. So I usually get great products without paying any money at all. Just last week someone from the group was offering a comic book which I'd always wanted to have, but couldn't find. I offered him one of my vintage records for it and he agreed.

Teacher: Good morning, class! I have some exciting news to share. On Monday we are going on a trip to the Botanical Gardens where we will learn a lot about plants.

We will meet at school at 9 a.m., please be here on time. Once we arrive at the gardens, we'll divide into three groups, and each group will go on a guided tour that will last two hours. After the tour, we'll all meet up again for a one-hour talk on how to start a school garden.

After the talk, you'll have some free time to explore the Botanical Gardens on your own. Then we'll have lunch outdoors at a café on a little hill nearby. From there you will be able to see the river.

There's also going to be a competition for the best photos from the trip. If you want to take part, print out your photo and bring it to the school office by Thursday next week. Our art teachers will then choose the best photos and hang them in the school library for everyone to see. There are attractive prizes for the winners.

Now, does anyone have any questions?
